

Language Arts

www.nitrotype.com (typing game)

www.readwritethink.org (variety of items according to grade level chosen)

www.tweentribune.com (Smithsonian)

www.sikids.com (Sports Illustrated)

Audio books: during the closures, Audible.com has made a variety of childrens, teens, and classic books available to stream

<https://stories.audible.com/start-listen>

Writing Prompts:A variety of writing prompts that are interesting and fun.

<https://www.edutopia.org/article/50-writing-prompts-all-grade-levels-todd-finley>

Other Extension activities:

Character playlist- Choose a character from a work you like. What songs would be on this character's playlist, and why?

Character interview- 1-3 characters (from the same novel or different novels) are on a talk show. How does that turn out? Write the script

Artifact box- If you were filling a box or time capsule to represent a novel, what items would be included, and why?

Scene sketch- Choose a scene or work. If you were going to represent the essence of this work with two circles and four lines, what would your picture be? Explain.

Vocab Go Fish: Find words from your reading you don't know, find synonyms for them, and create a set of "Go Fish" cards using vocab, then play!

Study Island

Newsela Articles

AP Central

Readworks.org

Read anything for enjoyment for 20 minutes each day