

Moshannon Valley Student Wellness Supports

ckrise@movalley.org

Courtney Krise: Mental Health Therapist. Assists with mental stress, emotional stress, family conflict, and life changes that can have a significant impact on emotional and mental health of students and families. Helping students work through challenges and restore well-being.

kmock@movalley.org

Katrina Mock: Licensed Social Worker. There are many different concerns that can be addressed, including housing, truancy, clothing, food, utilities, transportation, referrals for services, summer camps, childcare, substance abuse, or simply just someone to listen.

lwoods@movalley.org

Lisa Woods: Licensed Clinical Social Worker. LCSWs in addition to helping their clients deal with problems they are also involved in assessing, diagnosing, and treating individuals suffering from serious emotional, mental, or life issues.

kclarkson@movalley.org

Korinn Clarkson: Elementary School Counselor. A student advocate and resource for families including: individual and small group counseling, developmental classroom lessons, academic support, attendance concerns, peer mediation, career planning and agency referral.

jkitko@movalley.org

Jayne Kitko: High School Counselor. Helping students achieve success through academic, career, and personal/social domains. Services include individual counseling, academic support, attendance, peer mediation, testing coordinator, career planning, and agency referrals.

eweist@movalley.org

Erin Weist: Special Education Teacher. Emotional Support and Autistic Support instructor in the elementary. Her responsibilities are directed to supporting behavior and emotional needs of students.

tinalewis@movalley.org

Tina Lewis: Special Education Teacher. Works in the high school as the Life Skills, Emotional Support and Autistic Support instructor. Her responsibilities are directed to the daily behaviors and emotional needs of students.